Music*The SHOWCASE Series

The University of Southampton Music Department has developed a new Southampton SHOWCASE programme, providing professional training and opportunities for our advanced undergraduate and postgraduate performers. Our SHOWCASE recital series, part of our established professional lunchtime concert series, is a platform from which we hope these performers will gain professional performing experience and exposure. In addition to promoting and managing university and external bookings, we organise workshops on fees, contracts, working with agencies, and other topics that can help our students prepare themselves for successful freelance or portfolio musical careers.

Other SHOWCASE performers will be giving performances in lunchtime concerts on:

Monday 10 March 2014

Friday 28 March 2014

Turner Sims

1 - 1:50pm

Free admission

All the performers seen in the SHOWCASE performances are available to hire for your event.
Website coming shortly.
